

With the availability of inexpensive FRS transceivers, the need for this rulemaking is not warranted.

Additionally, the current experience with FRS transceivers seems to indicate that harmful interference with licensed services WILL occur at the power levels recommended by the petition.

I respectfully request that you dismiss the petition.